Uniting the best of two worlds, FARAGO is a boutique patent, trademark and design law firm with offices in Aachen and München. Serving our clients with all of our personal attention, we see ourselves as the key contact for all our clients' national and international patent, trademark and design matters. At the same time, we are the German office of Modiano law firm, one of the largest IP law firms in Europe with more than specialized attorneys, so that we can access a vast and highly experienced both firm-internal and international network.

Carsten Koch, patent attorney and partner of the firm, studied at the RWTH Aachen, and has been specializing inter alia in medical devices and medical engineering for 17 years now. He serves clients from start-ups to international enterprises, with a focus on university institutes, technology transfer, spin-offs, and medium-sized companies.
